WEAVER BARN DESTROYED BY LIGHTNING IN SEVERE STORM

A severe wind, lightning and rain storm caused more than $25,000 damage in the county early this morning, including the destruction of a barn near Heidersburg by fire caused by lightning.

Destroyed at the farm of George Weaver, Gettysburg R. 4, near Heidersburg, about 1:05 o'clock was a 40 by 78-foot barn and adjoining shed causing damage estimated between $20,000 and $25,000 and taking the lives of seven heifers in the structure.

A third of the roof of the 30 by 60 barn at the farm of Mrs. Annie Mauss at Sone Jug, three miles south of the Weaver barn, was ripped off, whirled around the barn and deposited about 40 feet away. The remainder of the roof collapsed. Timbers whirled about by the storm damaged the car of Mrs. Mauss' son, Glenn, parked on the opposite side of the barn.

Considerable Wind Damage

The heavy winds ripped off numerous trees, damaged telephone lines and knocked over some poles. State Highway crews were called out when fallen trees, limbs and poles partially blocked the Gettysburg-Harrisburg Rd., reducing traffic to "one-way" at several spots between here and York Springs.

The worst of the storm seemed to strike the area from Stone Jug north beyond Heidersburg.

It brought heavy rain to Gettysburg and some other sections. In some parts of the county the storm consisted of wind and lightning, with no rain falling.

The telephone smashed a tree across the telephone line at the home of Mr. Weaver, cutting off quick communication when he saw the lightning strike his barn. Neighbors also found their telephones dead and Weaver drove to Heidersburg to give the alarm.

Hay, Wheat Burns

York Springs firemen, responding to the call, found the heavy rain some help in preventing destruction of the concrete block milkhouse adjoining the barn.

By the time firemen arrived, the barn was beyond saving. No equipment was removed. Destroyed in the blaze were the barn, seven heifers, 2,000 bales of hay, 100 bushels of wheat, 1,000 bales of straw, half of his farm machinery and 1939 car.

HARRY A. LEAR CONVICTED OF TIPSY DRIVING

Harry Albert Lear, 38, Chambersburg St., was found guilty by Adams County jury this morning on a charge of driving while under the influence of intoxicants.

Immediately after the jury returned with its verdict at 11:50 o'clock Lear appeared before Judge Dale Shughart on an assault and battery charge brought against him by his wife.

Judge Shughart told Lear, who lost a leg in World War II action, that if he doesn't stop drinking "one of these times you are going to be here on a charge like the one upstairs and drunkenness is no defense for murder. I don't doubt that you told these police officers you were going to kill them, and maybe instead of hitting your wife when she refused to give you a rifle barrel she had hidden on a previous occasion you should be glad she did hide it. Some people can drink and some can't and you are one that can't. You have a lot of good in you. You are no dummy. You can be an excellent citizen. I'm going to give you a chance to prove it."

Delay Sentence

Lear was given a suspended sentence on the assault and battery and placed on probation for two years. He was warned that if he drinks or gets in trouble with his wife, or otherwise violates the parole he will be brought back immediately to be sentenced.

When Lear's attorney, Gerald Walmer, told the court that Lear's employment as an iron worker is seasonal, the court postponed sentence on the drunken driving charge to October but warned that "if you get into any trouble on the probation you will also be sentenced immediately on the charge of driving while under the influence of intoxicants."

Admitted "Two Shots"

Lear told the jury he had had two "shots of whiskey" on the night he was arrested for driving while under the influence and "it takes a lot more than that to affect me."

Lear said he had bought a second-hand car August 6, completing the deal about 6:30 p.m. That testimony was corroborated by Carroll Zentz, owner of a local used car lot who said he was certain Lear had had nothing to drink prior to leaving his lot at 6:30. He also said Lear complained of the steering on the car, but held that "I could find nothing wrong with it."

Lear said he then picked up his 12-year-old son and a neighbor boy and equipment and drove to the property of Lawrence J. Cullison, near Rothaupt's Mill on Marsh Creek, arriving about 7:30. Cullison corroborated that evidence. Lear said he set up the tent, made some coffee for himself and the boys, "held prayer" and then left about 10:30.

STORMS CAUSE FLOODING AND POWER FAILURE

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Severe electrical and thunderstorms hit scattered areas of Pennsylvania late Tuesday and today, causing power failures and some flooding.

Roxbury in Montgomery County was without power for nearly two hours this morning and for more than an hour and a half the Red Arrow lines between Philadelphia and Norristown were inoperative because of electric failures.

There were two inches of rain in Doylestown in less than three hours, just before dawn.

Power and telephone service were disrupted late Tuesday in the northern part of Beaver County, western Pennsylvania, and radio station WBVP was operated for half an hour by using an emergency generator.

Basements Flooded

Basements in Beaver Falls were flooded and both electricity and gas were shut off in some areas as a precautionary measure.

In eastern Pennsylvania the storm hit scattered areas. Despite the deluge at Doylestown, the weather bureau in Philadelphia, about 25 miles away, measured only three-hundredths of an inch in about the same period.

The sky through the early morning hours was lit brilliantly and almost continuously by lightning flashes throughout southeastern Pennsylvania and adjoining areas of New Jersey.

The storm provided only temporary relief to the area from the hot, humid weather of the past few days.

MARINES WILL HONOR MELVIN MILLER TODAY

PEORIA, Ill. (AP) — Melvin Miller, a quiet, home-loving man, flies west today, straight into the welcoming arms of what he thinks is the wackiest bunch of Marines in the Corps.

Miller, 40, a tractor factory foreman, is the puzzled, but willing, victim of a practical joke that has assumed gigantic proportion.

It started a year ago in a Marine hangout called the Sandpiper Bar in Laguna Beach, Calif.

Out Of Air

Capt. Joe Geston, now a major, was at the Sandpiper one night and mislaid his car. A buddy suggested "try Peoria" and he did.

Pulling a name out of the air, he asked the telephone operator to get him Melvin Miller in Peoria.

Good ol' Mel, as he's known now, answered the phone and well, today he's going to California, all expenses paid by Maj. Geston and scores of his buddies who in Marine hangouts the world over learned the saga of good ol' Mel in Peoria.

Feet On Ground

But Mel is keeping both feet on the ground.

Lunch with actress Jayne Mansfield.

"What's so special about that?" he asked. "If I was home I'd have lunch with my wife."

So, Melvin Miller, an elder in his church and who believes in eight to four at the shop and then home, will board an airliner carrying a key to Peoria and a miniature tractor for Laguna Beach's mayor.

Busy Schedule

A motorcade and band will meet him at Los Angeles International Airport. His busy program calls for civic dinners, a visit to a race track for the "Melvin Miller Stakes," a luncheon with Miss Mansfield, a tour of Los Angeles, bullfights in Tijuana, Mexico, and an appearance in a television show.

The windup of a hectic week next Tuesday calls for Mel to attend a full-dress review of Marines at El Toro Marine Air Station and then to the Los Angeles Coliseum where he'll throw out the first ball for the Dodgers-San Francisco baseball game.

Defer Hearing On Pharmacy Rule

HARRISBURG (AP) — The State Board of Pharmacy postponed a scheduled public hearing today on its new regulations designed to tighten up operations of hospital pharmacies.

The board said the postponement was granted by a request by the Pennsylvania Pharmaceutical Assn.

The new regulations would prevent hospital pharmacies from dispensing substitute drugs without the prescribing physician's consent, and would prevent private patients of hospital staff doctors from obtaining drugs at the hospital pharmacy.

The pharmaceutical association said it wanted more time to study the order, a board spokesman said.

BOLT KILLS FISHERMAN

NEWARK, N. J. (AP) — Lightning struck and killed a fisherman off the Jersey shore and set fire to a church steeple in Holmdel today during a rain storm that drenched most of the state.

The lightning victim was William Rehfuss Jr., 53, of South Amboy. Commercial fishermen brought him ashore at Monmouth Beach.

The U. S. Weather Bureau measured about half an inch of rain at the Newark Airport and more than an inch at Lakehurst. Atlantic City had only a quarter of an inch of rain and other parts of South Jersey had less.

BUREAU OF CENSUS HAS NEW SERVICE

Last year 4,864 residents of Pennsylvania turned to the U. S. Bureau of the Census for help in proving they were born. These parents were among an estimated 30 million United States residents who are without proof of age or birth. The historical records of the Census Bureau provide the only source of this information for most of these 30 million people.

Proof of age or birth is needed today to collect social security and other retirement benefits. It is needed to obtain passports. It is needed to qualify for jobs carrying certain age or citizenship requirements. It is needed for some forms of insurance.

Secure Census Records

Since 1920, the Census Bureau has provided more than three and one-half million persons with copies of their census records on age, place of birth, citizenship or kinship. Persons seeking such records of facts about themselves should write to the Personal Census Service Branch, Bureau of the Census, Pittsburgh, Kansas, for a census records search application form. A fee of $3 is charged for a search of no more than two censuses for one person and for one copy of the information found. Additional copies cost $1 each. An expedited search costs $4. Expedited searches are usually completed within a few days while the routine $3 search may take up to 30 days, depending upon the backlog of requests and the ease or difficulty in locating the information.

The personal information in the records of the 1900 and later censuses is confidential by law and may be furnished only upon the written request of the person to whom it relates, or for a proper purpose, a legal representative such as guardian or administrator of an estate. Information regarding a child who has not reached legal age may be obtained upon the written request of either parent.

Longshots Feature Shenandoah Card

CHARLES TOWN, W. Va.—A flock of longshots played havoc with form players at Shenandoah Downs Tuesday night and brought the Bonanza payoff down to earth after three straight pools that netted three individual winners more than $36,000.

Four correct selections were enough to take home $951.40 last night, as outsiders dominated the last six races at the night track. Eight amateur handicappers scrambled around to come up with the required number of winners. Three winners were good enough for the Little Bonanza for only the second time since pool play was introduced here and 111 fans collected $29.20 on that combination.

The Bonanza longshots included Gaddie in the fourth ($15.80), Annette G. ($24.60), Mrs. Teeny ($33.00), Spinning Jenny ($50.00). The only near favorites that netted three individual winners more than $36,000.

The test will be over the one mile and a sixteenth, with Little Boo, Kings Flight, Black Jewel and London Tower expected to furnish much of the competition.

CALIFORNIA MISS IN LEAD AT DILLSBURG

DILLSBURG, Pa. (AP)—Blonde Mickey Wright has taken a strong liking to the Range End Country Club Course, scene of the Eastern Women's Open Golf Tournament.

The long-hitting star from San Diego, Calif., took advantage of its wide open spaces Tuesday to post a 5-under-par 67. She clipped a stroke from the course record for men and took a three-stroke lead after the first round of the 54-hole event.

Miss Wright, third leading money winner of the women's professional tour, sank a 10-foot birdie putt on the 18th.

Off To Flying Start

"I had no idea I needed that put for a record," she beamed. "In fact, I never worry about the course records. I just play the best I can. This course I like very much, which is pretty obvious."

Her round, despite oppressive temperatures touching the 90 mark in this south-central Pennsylvania area, got her off to a flying start in the $7,500 tourney.

Betty Rawls, Spartansburg, S. C., clipped two strokes from par to grab second place with a 70.

Other par-busters were Jackie Pung, San Francisco, and Wiffie Smith, St. Clair, Mich., who shared third place with 71s.

Amateurs' Scores

Kathy Cornelius, Lakeland, Fla., matched par 72 to stay in contention. Five other players were all bunched at 73.

Heading the 12 amateur entries was Betty Fehl, Reading, former state amateur champ. She fired a 79.

The scores of other amateurs included:

Jacquelyn Leary, Chester Valley, 38-42-80

Mr. John Dyson, Hazleton, 40-41-81

Ann Rutherford, Lebanon, 40-41-81

The marriage of Miss Lubitsa Nenadovich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steven Nenadovich, Paxtang, and Robert David Katz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Katz, of New York City, was solemnized recently in the Wilson Chapel of the University of Illinois YMCA. The Rev. John Price officiated.

Green—Kelly

Miss Ann Marie Kelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis R. Kelly, 406 W. Main St., Emmitsburg, and Clay Lamar Green, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clay Z. Green, Emmitsburg, were married Sunday at 2:30 p.m. in St. Joseph Catholic Church, Emmitsburg. The double ring ceremony was performed by the bride's pastor, Rev. James T. Twomey. An organ recital preceding the ceremony and traditional wedding marches were played by the church organist, Mrs. Louis Rosenthal.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a floor length gown of nylon with lace panels in front and back. The sides were of chantilly lace ruffles over a satin skirt. The bodice was made of lace with a scalloped neckline adorned with sequins and long sleeves of lace. Her fingertip veil fell from a crown of sequins and pearls. She wore a teardrop pearl necklace, a gift of the groom. She carried a white Bible topped by a white satin with white flowers on white satin streamers.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Mark A. Sanders, Gettysburg, wore a ballerina length gown of aqua nylon over satin which featured a ruffled skirt and strapless bodice and a lace jacket. She wore an open-crowned headpiece covered with a nylon veil. She carried a white heart with green and white mums surrounding a large green dahlia.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. Ruth Ditzler, Hanover, who wore a blue chiffon over net and taffeta with chiffon lace panels and Mrs. Florence Harmon, Gardners, who wore a gown similar to the matron. They carried flowers like the matron of honor, in pink and blue. The flower girls were Miss Unius Lepko, who wore a light brown dress and brown headpiece, and Miss Sherry Ditzler, who wore a white lace dress and brown headpiece. Both carried baskets of mixed flowers.

James Wyner, Westminster, was best man. Ray and James

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the local VFW annex after which the couple left for a trip through Niagara and Canada. For traveling the bride chose a black sheath dress with white accessories and wore the white orchid lifted from her prayer book. Upon their return the couple will reside in their newly furnished apartment on W. Main St., Emmitsburg.

The bride graduated from St. Euphemia's Grade School, St. Joseph's High School, Class of 1959, and is presently employed as a secretary in the H. O. Toor Shoe Corp., Emmitsburg. Mr. Green attended Frederick High School, served two years in the U.S. Marine Corp and graduated from U.S. Marine Corp Bakers School.

Professor Juggles Poisons To Keep Orchard Mites From Building Immunity To Sprays

The story of the housefly and its resistance to DDT is well known and Adams County fruitgrowers have found that some orchard pests can develop the same kind of immunity to some of the insecticides fruitmen use on their trees to protect them from attack.

Among the orchard pests that give the most difficulty are several species of mites, tiny eight-legged animals that suck juices from the leaves of plants.

Three years ago Prof. Dean Asquith, entomologist at the Pennsylvania State University Fruit Research Laboratory in Ardenwood, became concerned at the rate mites were becoming resistant to the chemicals used to combat them.

Tried Experiments

In an attempt to learn if something could be done about the problem, he started an experiment in one of the fruit laboratory's apple orchards.

Choosing two "miticides," he sprayed certain especially designated trees with each of the miticides alone at full strength in every application aimed at mites.

He sprayed other trees with the two miticides mixed together in every application, the kill of mites continued at the same high level as in 1958 and 1959, an indication that the mites were being applied alone were populations of the European red mite highly resistant to these chemicals.

Bon To Orchardists

On the other hand, on the trees sprayed with the two miticides in alternate applications or with the two miticides mixed together in every application, the kill of mites continued at the same high level as in 1958 and 1959, an indication that there was little or no resistance to the miticides by the mites on these trees.

Professor Asquith cannot predict how long it will take for resistant mites to appear on the trees sprayed with the alternate applications, using each at full strength as at one-half the full strength of each chemical in every application.

During the growing seasons of 1958 and 1959, both miticides in the experiment killed a high percentage of the European red mite, the principal mite involved, by all three methods of use. But it became evident this year that the trees to which the miticides were being applied alone were populations of the European red mite highly resistant to these chemicals.

In the meantime, however, this discovery of the advantage of these methods of using miticides will prove a boon to both orchardists and chemists now employing miticides.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the local VFW annex after which the couple left for a trip through Niagara and Canada. For traveling the bride chose a black sheath dress with white accessories and wore the white orchid lifted from her prayer book. Upon their return the couple will reside in their newly furnished apartment on W. Main St., Emmitsburg.

Fewer Polio Cases

In Health Counties

HARRISBURG (AP) — The State

there have been fewer polio cases

during the past two years in coun-

Dr. Charles L. Wilbar, health of this year's 33 polio cases have occurred in areas covered by county health departments. Last year, he said, only 19 per cent of the 193 polio cases occurred in such counties.

THE BIRDS' SHOWER BATH

It is an amazing thing to watch the birds in a forest where their lives are free and undisturbed.

Sitting in my Nova Scotia island summer retreat I witnessed an unusual sight. It had showered

a short time before and there were left great masses of foliage sparkling in the sunlight—like tiny diamonds in "Drops of Dew,"

Lafcadia Hearn called such a sight. But this is what I saw: hemlock, and other varieties of shower laden branches.

Birds flying all over the place were diving into the branches.

Then they would shake their bodies and watch for the sunlight to dry their wings. They looked so happy jumping from tree to tree. Busy birds, taking their

HOUSTON ASKS TEXAS TO MOVE FOR DELAY IN INTEGRATION

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Fighting a last-ditch battle against integration Houston has asked the state of Texas to invoke the ancient doctrine of interposition to prevent racial mixing in its public school classrooms.

The Houston School Board, under federal court order to integrate the first grades when school opens Sept. 7, appealed to Gov.

Price Daniel to interpose himself between the district and the federal government.

The board said Daniel is the district's last hope for keeping schools segregated.

Integration of first grades of

New Orleans public schools was delayed at least until Nov. 14 by one of the federal judges who recently enjoined Louisiana Gov.

Jimmie Davis from interfering with the Orleans Parish School

Board, U. S. Dist. Judge J. Skelly

Wright said the board informed him it would be impossible to comply with the Sept. 7 integration demand because of Davis' seizure of the schools Aug. 17.

In Darlington, S.C., four young

Negroes bearing anti-segregation placards were arrested as schools opened on their traditional segregated pattern.

Nashville, Tenn., quietly began the fourth year of its grade-a-year integration program, and several Negroes were expected to register today in previously all-white Knoxville schools in the first year of a similar plan.

In Dunn, S.C., 10 Indians unsuccessfully sought to enter the all-white high school, and in St.

Louis, the 8th U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals ruled that the Dollar-way, Ark., school district had applied the state school placement laws illegally.

While still endeavoring to delay integration, Houston opened registration for its first grades and kindergarten Tuesday. No Negroes tried to enroll in all-white

Chicago Wins In 10-Inning Spectacular While Boston Takes 25-Inning Double Bill

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

It will be a long time before American League fans forget Tuesday night.

In Washington, there was a wild, whacky 10-inning spectacular in which the White Sox and Senators scored one run between them in the first seven innings and 20 runs in the next three. Chicago won 11-10.

In Boston, the Red Sox took both ends of a two-night double-header from Detroit after 7½ hours and 25 innings. Boston won the opener 5-4 in 15 innings and the second game 3-2 in 10 innings.

Yanks Rally To Win

Boston's Pete Runnels went on a batting rampage with nine hits. Boston Manager Mike Higgins also went wild, charging out to the mound to square off with Jim Bunning after the Tiger pitcher had beaten Don Buddin with a pitch.

In New York, a torrential rain and flash floods kept many would-be Yankee Stadium customers home, but those who made it saw the Yankees rally in the ninth to defeat Kansas City 3-2 and maintain their ½ game lead over Baltimore.

Only in Baltimore, there was no untoward incident as the Orioles whipped the Indians 4-1.

Wild Game In Washington

For seven innings in Washington, the fans saw a tight pitching duel between the White Sox's Frank Baumann and the Senators' Pedro Ramos. Washington led 1-0 at the end of seven.

Chicago took a 2-1 lead in the eighth on two walks and singles by pinch-hitter Ted Kluszewski, Roy Sievers and Minnie Minoso. Washington bounced back with four runs in its half, three coming on Jim Lemon's 31st home run.

The White Sox roared back with five runs in the ninth. Minoso's three-run homer giving them a 7-5 lead. Washington tied it on Billy Gardner's two-run blow. In the 10th, Nellie Fox doubled home two runs and Gardner's wild throw gave Chicago two more for an 11-7 lead. The Senators bounced back with three runs on a double by Bob Allison, a triple by pinch-hitter Julio Bequer and a home run by Lennie Green.

Runnels, Smith Tie

Runnels' sixth hit, a double in the 15th, scored Frank Malzone with the winning run for Boston in its first game. A throwing error by Tiger shortstop Chico Fernandez permitted pinch-hitter Tom Brewer to score the winning run in the 10th inning of the second game. Rocky Colavito had tied the score in the 10th with his 27th home run for Detroit. Runnels added three hits in the nightcap to tie Chicago's Al Smith at 324 for the bat-topping lead.

In the seventh inning of the second game, Buddin was hit on the forehead by loser Bunning's pitch. That brought Higgins racing out of the dugout to charge Bunning with deliberate beaning.

Win For Estrada

Three ex-Kansas City players starred in the Yankee victory. With the score tied 2-2 in the ninth, Joe DeMaestri, traded by the A's to the Yankees last winter, singled and was sacrificed to second. Hector Lopez, another ex-Athletic, singled DeMaestri home with the winning run. Clete Boyer, still another old KC player, drove in the first two Yankee runs with a home run, his 12th.

Chuck Estrada, 22, Baltimore's rookie right-hander, handcuffed the Indians with four hits for his 15th victory.

OLSON-JONES FIGHT TONIGHT

CHICAGO (AP) — Carl (Bobo) Olson, former middleweight champ turned light heavyweight, clashed with undefeated Doug Jones in a 10-round bout in Chicago Stadium tonight.

This will be the first time Olson has appeared in Chicago since he lost his title here to Sugar Ray Robinson in 1955. Robinson knocked him out in the fourth round of that match.

The bout will be televised by the ABC network at 9 p.m. (CDT). Scoring will be under the 5-point must system.

The 32-year-old Olson, fighting as a light heavy since he returned from a brief retirement in 1956, won his last eight fights and has moved to sixth place among 175 pound contenders.

Jones, 24-year-old New Yorker, is undefeated in 15 professional fights and now ranks fourth among the light heavies.

Thirteen presidential candidates have been elected with a popular vote of less than 50 per cent of the total votes cast.

Upper Adams LL All-Stars Top Fairfield

The Upper Adams Little League All-Stars downed the Fairfield Little League All-Stars 7-2 Tuesday evening under the lights at the Bigerville High School athletic field as the losers were held to but two hits by three Upper Adams hurlers.

In the late morning men's track events also advanced two for tonight's finals in the men's 100-meter backstroke event — Bob Bennett of Encino, Calif., and Frank McKinney of Indianapolis — was not the best for Uncle Sam.

Youth Tops Divers

Brian Phelps of Britain, the 16-year-old European champion, shocked U.S. hopes by leading 16 qualifiers into Thursday's semi-finals of the men's high diving event.

Gary Tobian of Glendale, Calif., the favorite in this event after pulling a surprise by winning the springboard gold medal, was fourth, and Bob Webster of Santa Ana, Calif., was ninth.

The three U.S. entries, Joann Terry of Indianapolis, Irene Robertson of Inglewood, Calif., and Shirley Crowder of Atlanta, were eliminated in the opening heats of the women's 80-meter hurdles. Miss Robertson was last in her heat, won by Russia's great Irina Press in 10.7 seconds, equaling the Olympic record set in 1956 by Australia's Shirley Strickland.

Setback In Rowing

The United States also suffered a setback in rowing, when the pair with coxswain from the Lake Washington (Seattle) Rowing Club was beaten by four lengths by Russia. America, defending champion in this event, gets a second chance to make Saturday's final in Thursday's repechages.

Sime, the Duke dandy from Durham, N.C., Harry and Jerome, all running in separate heats — were timed in 10.5, with Sime finishing third, the last qualifying spot, in his race. Harry and Jerome share the record of 10 flat.

Great performances in swimming Tuesday that won two gold medals gave the U.S. team 72 points, only one behind Germany and 26 points behind the Russians who were capitalizing in fields they were expected to dominate.

Girl Breaks Record

A return game will be played at Fairfield Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Scribe Lists Troubles Of Foreign American Trade For Upcoming Conference

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Castro, Trujillo, Lumumba — they are but three of the trouble names on Uncle Sam's list when sizing up his trade and investment prospects with the rest of the world.

Coming up next month is a full-scale conference on tariff and trade with most of the nations of the Western world. Its timing coincides with growing protests in this country against inroads of foreign goods — often lower prices — and against loss of trade abroad to European and Japanese manufacturers.

The American industrialist is also aware that while output has been stalemated here for several months, it has been booming abroad.

Investment Money Flow

A sideline, but a troublesome one, is the flow of investment money and gold from these shores for the currently more prospering ones. The dollar hasn't been undermined — but the threat, however farfetched, is there.

The Soviet government has been causing trouble in world trade, too. While the Soviet total share is small, it manages to concentrate on sore spots — and inflame them.

The Congo's copper may be the reason Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev is so solicitous about Premier Patrice Lumumba's problems there and so anxious to keep them at a boil.

Oil To Cuba

The Soviet Union is shipping oil to Cuba, where our refineries have been seized by Prime Minister Fidel Castro.

Soviet price cutting has led American oil companies to lower prices in India and the Middle East — to the distress not only of

CONVERTIBLES ARE EASIER TO FILM FOR TV

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — One curious custom of TV's private eyes is driving around in open convertibles even when all the hired guns of gangland are hot on their trail.

The habit, however, is a matter of studio economics, rather than stupidity or bravado.

"It's a lot easier and cheaper to get the proper lighting on a man in an open convertible than in a sedan or a coupe," explained the producer of a show with a top-down hero.

Another irksome TV custom is the wild driving — by both hunters and hunted — during automobile chases, with the wild screech of tires as the cars go around even slight curves in the road.

Shrieking tires, I am informed, are merely sound effects added to give viewer excitement. Most of such chase scenes are filmed by cameras without sound tracks. The noises are later added — along with siren sounds — by technicians.

Keep Sounds Out

Most sounds other than actors' voices that we hear during a completed show have been "laid in," as it is called, after the show is filmed. That includes the clop of horses' hooves, shattering glass, even the ringing of telephones.

In filmed shows, it is the aim of the director to produce a sound track clean of everything but necessary dialogue. When an outdoor shot is necessary, it is customary to swathe the sensitive microphone in cheesecloth to prevent it from picking up even the sound of a gentle wind.

FARMER KILLS WIFE, SUICIDES

SALLADASBURG, Pa. (AP) — A Lycoming County farmer brought his two young sons to the home of his wife Monday, then shot and killed her and himself.

Coroner Earl R. Miller issued a murder-suicide verdict in the deaths of Richard F. Breining, 54, and his wife, Dorothy, 31.

The boys, Richard, 7, and Steven, 6, ran to a general store near the cottage occupied by their mother and reported the shooting.

Investigators said Mrs. Breining, a practical nurse at Jersey Shore Hospital, had been staying at the cottage about a month.

Breining and the boys were living on their farm at Cogan Station R. D. 2, about 12 miles east of Salladasburg.

There was no immediate explanation for Breining's act.

Police said they were continuing their investigation of the incident.

C. W. SWOYER DIES

READING, Pa. (AP) — Charles W. Swoyer, 82, who brought Grand Circuit horse racing to Reading in 1936 and helped found the U. S. Trotting Assn., governing body of the sport, died Monday in Reading Hospital.

Police said they were continuing their investigation of the incident.

2 Box Car Shops Destroyed By Fire

ALTOONA, Pa. (AP) — Two large box car repair shops of the Pennsylvania Railroad were destroyed by fire Monday night at nearby Logan Twp.

Railroad officials and firemen said damages should run into several hundred thousand dollars. No injuries were reported.

Firemen said several empty box cars were destroyed. An official said both of the 400-foot shops were loaded with cars to near capacity.

The fire was confined to the two shops. They were used to repair doors on box cars.

Cause of the fire was not known immediately.

SHARK VICTIM LOSES HIS LEG

NEPTUNE, N.J. (AP) — Shark victim John Brodeur, 24, has had his right leg amputated at the knee.

He is in fair condition at Fikin Memorial Hospital after the operation Monday which Dr. Charles Samaha, Asbury Park, said was necessary "to conserve Brodeur's life."

Brodeur's fiancee, Jean Filoromo, 22, a Jersey City school teacher, said her marriage to the accountant, also from Jersey City, is "postponed to an indefinite date in the future but there will definitely be a wedding."

The pretty blonde helped Brodeur out of the water after he was attacked by a shark in the Atlantic Ocean surf in Sea Girt Aug. 21.

Dr. Samaha said the amputation was necessary because of infection and inadequate return of circulation. It had not been possible to repair the leg in an earlier operation.

The men were sealed in the tank tank 15. They plan to stay inside their "space ship" at least 17 days, which is the length of time believed necessary for a flight to the moon and back using equipment and fuel expected to be available in the near future.

African States Call For Cooperation Between U.N. And Congo; Hits Lumumba

By LYNN HEINZLER

LEOPOLDIVILLE, the Congo (AP)—The conference of independent African states jolted Premier Patrice Lumumba today with a resolution calling for frank and loyal cooperation between the United Nations and the Congo.

Lumumba, who has described the United Nations as imperialist, harassed Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold, and even called for the withdrawal of the U.N. force, sat in silence as the resolution was read in the conference hall.

The conference, which brought together delegates of 13 African states, wound up as Lumumba's government built up its troop strength in neighboring Kasai province, apparently for an invasion of rebellious Katanga.

Belgian Troops Out

Lumumba had won one of his main demands. The United Nations announced that the last Belgian combat troops have quit the Congo, leaving only a few hundred technical specialists to look after the big treaty bases at Kamina, in Katanga; and Kitona, on the Congo River.

The conference expressed regrets at the incidents which have troubled relations between the Congo and the U.N.

The conference paid homage to the organization "for the work of peace it brings to the Congo." It praised U.N. for bringing about the withdrawal of Belgian troops and taking over the Kamina and Kitona bases.

May Block Runways

The evacuation brought quick demands from Katanga's Premier Moise Tshombe that the U.N. turn control of Kamina over to him or he would block its runways with bulldozers, trucks and oil drums.

The United Nations wants the big base 360 miles northwest of Elisabethville neutralized and banned to all troops but those of the U.N. Tshombe, however, fears that U.N. forces will not prevent Lumumba's invaders from landing at the base and using it as the springboard for their campaign to establish Lumumba's authority in the province.

Lumumba returned to Leopoldville after a provincial tour. There was no indication whether, with the last Belgian combat troops gone, he would revive his earlier demands that the U.N. force also leave the country.

Showing he had taken to heart the counsel of leftist advisers, the Congo premier announced he had ordered a "profound reform of the ancient structure" of society in Oriental province. Territories formerly ruled by tribal chiefs would now become rural communes, he said. He also told of a decision to create peasant cooperatives to "mobilize all the forces of the country for a vast economic and social program."

DISPUTES OVER FOREIGN AID, SUGAR STALL ADJOURNMENT

WASHINGTON (AP) — Disputes over sugar import controls and extra foreign aid funds today stalled adjournment by Congress members eager to get home to election campaigning.

Because of these difficulties, leaders shied away from saying when the session might end.

"We'll have to see how we get along," Senate Democratic leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas told newsmen.

Too Many Strings

He said refusal of House conferees to accept 190 million dollars of extra foreign aid funds—tacked on to the final catch-all money bill by the Senate—probably was the key roadblock.

The House conferees asked the House to vote backing for their stand.

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois told newsmen that the House had attached too many strings to a sugar quota bill, asked by President Eisenhower to cut purchases from the Dominican Republic.

Hussein many times has complained that President Gamal Abdel Nasser of the U.A.R. is trying to destroy his throne.

At a news conference Tuesday, Hussein charged that "people in Cairo" were aware of the bomb plot in which Majali and 10 other people were killed and 31 injured.

Two Flew Syria

Hussein added that the assassins "were linked up with responsible people in the United Arab Republic—mainly in Syria."

Two employees of the Jordan Press Bureau are reported to have fled to Syria after planting the two time bombs that exploded in Majali's office and the Press Bureau Monday.

The newspaper Al Jihad said demolition experts examining the ruins of the offices found other unexploded bombs in the building.

The Amman radio broadcast accused the U.A.R. of intrigue and treason for allegedly harboring the assassins.

Hussein demanded extradition of the two suspects from the U.A.R.

NEW YORK (AP) — Roy W. Howard announced today his retirement from the editorship of the New York World-Telegram and Sun, a post he has held for 33 years.

Howard, who is 77, will continue as president and a director of the New York World-Telegram Corp., the company which publishes the paper.

Succeeding Howard as editor will be Lee B. Wood, who currently holds the post of executive editor. The change takes place Thursday.

KENNEDY OFF FOR RALLIES; LODGE TO TAKE NIXON'S PLACE

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Both Democratic and Republican campaign schedules are being jumbled.

Sen. John F. Kennedy, the Democratic presidential nominee, will head into New England on Friday. The trip originally was planned for Thursday.

Kennedy will be in Boston for a $1,000-a-plate fund raising affair, then fly to rallies at Manchester, N.H., and Presque Isle, Maine. He will speak at a dinner Friday night in Bangor, Maine.

Republican campaign planners announced Henry Cabot Lodge, GOP vice presidential nominee, will fill in at some political functions for Vice President Richard M. Nixon while the party's standard-bearer is hospitalized with a knee infection. Nixon is expected to be sidelined until about Sept. 12.

Lodge will be free to devote his time to campaigning after his resignation as U.N. ambassador becomes effective this weekend.

White House press secretary James C. Hagerty predicted Tuesday that Nixon and Lodge will be the winners in November. Hagerty, addressing a gathering of GOP party public relations consultants and speaking on his own "as a seasoned political observer," predicted "a large break-through" for the Republican ticket two weeks before the end of the campaign.

Nixon was revamping his campaign plans from his hospital bed, dictating speech drafts and contacting party leaders by phone.

Far from the scene of the political battles, Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev intruded with his views on Nixon and Kennedy. He said, "they are a pair of boots. Which is better, the right or left boot? It would be difficult to distinguish between them."

CONFERS WITH KING HUSSEIN OVER MURDER

By SPIRO ELISSA

AMMAN, Jordan (AP) — U.N. representative Pier Spinelli arrived today to confer with King Hussein, who has charged that "responsible people" in the United Arab Republic were linked with the bomb assassination of Premier Hazzah Majali.

Spinelli, U.N. chief in the Middle East, was ordered by Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold to rush here from Geneva to deal with the new crisis threatening in the Middle East.

Hussein many times has complained that President Gamal Abdel Nasser of the U.A.R. is trying to destroy his throne.

Might Get Nothing

Asked by a reporter if the administration would prefer no bill to the one that came through the House, Dirksen said: "You just can't operate under the House bill."

He said the outcome might be that no sugar legislation would be enacted.

Failure to get the 190 million dollars extra for foreign aid would be a sharp blow to President Eisenhower. The Senate put it into a supplemental appropriation bill after Eisenhower protested that the $3,722,350 provided by the regular foreign aid appropriation bill was too little.

Atomic Sub Will Reach Nome Sept. 5

WASHINGTON (AP) — The atomic submarine Seadragon, en route from the Atlantic to the Pacific by way of the arctic, is due to visit Nome, Alaska, within a few days.

The Navy said today that the submarine, which left Portsmouth, N.H., Aug. 1, will arrive at Nome on Labor Day.

She then will head out to complete her long voyage, arriving at Pearl Harbor about Sept. 14 to begin service with the Pacific fleet.

Alaska has 6,640 miles of coastline, slightly more than all the rest of the coastal states put together.

The change takes place Thursday.

Absent-minded Barber Leaves $15,000 In Room And Loses Hotel

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — "I must have been like an absent-minded professor," said the man who left his $15,000 life savings in a New York hotel room and then couldn't find his hotel.

Maxim Radin, 79, a barber in California for 50 years, was to sail for his native Yugoslavia with his savings in a battered linen valise.

Radin arrived in New York a week ago Sunday and checked in at the Hotel Ashley. He paid $12 for the two day's rent, unpacked and went for a walk.

Thought He Was Robbed

"Then I couldn't find my way back," he told newsmen Monday night. "I couldn't even remember the name of the hotel."

He wandered around New York for two days looking for the Hotel Ashley. He went to police. They drove him around until he spotted what he thought was his hotel. But what he thought was his room was bare.

Radin was convinced he had been robbed of his valise containing $11,067 in travelers' checks, $3,800 in cash, $20 in gold pieces, a bill of sale for an Oakland apartment building, his passport and steamship tickets.

The dejected Radin had enough cash in a money belt to fly back to Oakland.

Starting All Over

"We had no idea that had happened to him," said Michael Funk manager of the Hotel Ashley. "He had told us he was going back to Yugoslavia to die."

Radin, unmarried, has no relatives except in Belgrade, capital of Yugoslavia.

Funk took Radin's luggage into a storage room and rented the room to Mr. and Mrs. James LaBodie of Winnetka, Ill., and their sons, 11 and 13. The boys found the valise under the bed.

"I didn't know people were that honest," said Radin when reporters reached him in an Oakland hotel. "Now I'll start all over again."

WESTERN TV BLIGHTS LIVES OF AMERICANS

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Are you an addict of television Western programs?

Do you feel they are blighting your life because you spend more time watching them than you do working at your job or entertaining your wife and children?

Do not despair. Hope may be at hand. The ailment may cure itself spontaneously. It did with me.

5-1 Ratio

Today there are millions of Americans addicted to liquor, narcotics or gambling. But for every one of these there are probably five who are compulsive viewers of TV horse operas.

The disease is insidious in its onset. At first the victim is supremely self-confident.

"I can take this stuff or leave it alone," he says, twirling the knobs on his TV set.

Crazed For More

That's the way I felt, too. At the start I watched one. I discovered one Western program wasn't enough.

One simply left me feeling empty and unsatisfied. I craved more gunfire, more stampedes, more redskin raids, more U.S. Cavalry charges, more rustlers. Without knowing it was hooked.

One led to another, and soon I was thinking up excuses to leave the office early so I could get home early and switch on the kid Westerns.

"Daddy, do we have to look at

CHARGE WOMAN WITH MURDER, POISONED SON

PEARISBURG, Va. (AP) — Police held a pregnant mother of four in jail today on a charge of killing one of her small children, whose stomach was found "loaded with arsenic."

The three other children apparently are recovering from arsenic poisoning.

Mary Elizabeth Adams Giles, 19, is charged with murder and is being held without bond. Police said she denied the charge.

Seal Off House

Sheriff John E. Hopkins Jr. of southwest Virginia's Giles County said the stomach of Mrs. Giles' son, Terry, 3, was found "loaded with arsenic" during an autopsy.

Police sealed off the house where Mrs. Giles and the children lived in the Bunker Hill section.

Terry died Monday about 15 minutes after Mrs. Giles brought him and another child to the hospital in this mountainous region bordering West Virginia. Neighbors brought in the other two children for examination.

Husband Separated

The children hospitalized are Teresa Anne, 5; John Jr., 9; and Sandra Sue, 10.

Mrs. Giles and her husband, a cannery worker, have been separated for varying periods during the past 18 months. He lives at Narrows, a few miles away.

Hopkins said blood samples showed all the children had been poisoned with arsenic. He said Mrs. Giles is 5 1/2 months pregnant.

any more cowboys?" pleaded my 7-year-old daughter, Tracy.

"Shut up, kid," I grated, "and watch the posse."

"You don't eat dinner any more," complained my wife. "You just gulp your food in between hangings and stagecoach hold-ups."

TV DTs

It was true. It got so I couldn't even go to sleep unless I first had a nightcap in the form of a late, late movie.

When the doctor heard of my vice, he said: "We're getting a lot of cases like yours lately. You're simply suffering Western hallucinations — a form of TV DTs."

He suggested that I taper off.

I couldn't taper off. The disease got worse. Then suddenly one night, while I was watching my fifth Western program of the evening, I began to sweat. I trembled violently.

Now A Teetotaler

The hero was just about to gun down the villain, but I instinctively switched off the set. In a few moments I calmed down and felt better.

What had happened? I still don't know. But the disease had apparently run its course. It is still too early to be sure the remedy is permanent, but I feel it is.

If you are a helpless horse opera addict, don't give up hope. An overdose of the stuff may turn you into a teetotaler, too, and you can start living a normal life again free from the noise of bang-bang.

DERRY, Pa. Hitchhiker Says He Was Attacked

CHAMBERSBURG, Pa. (AP) — A hitchhiker from Maryland reported he was stabbed seven times Monday by two men who had given him a ride on Route 16 near Greencastle in Franklin County.

Charles W. Redmond, 20, Hailestown, told police he knew of no reason for the attack. He said he had been riding with the men about a mile when one began slashing his left arm. They left him on the road, he said. Redmond was treated at Chambersburg Hospital and released.

SMITH ASKS IF STATE INCOME TAX IS SOUGHT

HARRISBURG (AP) — A specialist in international law said Tuesday he believes an impartial court would uphold the U2 spy flight over the Soviet Union as justified.

Charles S. Rhyne, a former president of the American Bar Assn. and now chairman of the ABA Special Committee on World Peace Through Law, discussed the legal aspect of the U2 incident in a speech prepared for the American Law Student Assn.

"I believe that an impartial court would hold that Russia's secret 'closed' society coupled with her threats based upon her atomic, satellite and ICBM developments, and her announced plans for world domination justifies a defensive measure like U2," Rhyne said.

Not Aggressive

He also expressed the belief that such a court would rule that the flight of an unarmed plane over Soviet territory "is not an aggressive act within the meaning of the United Nations charter."

A Soviet court earlier this month convicted the U2 pilot, Francis Gary Powers, of spying and sentenced him to 30 years loss of liberty.

CASTRO RAPS YANKS AGAIN

By RICHARD VALERIANI

HAVANA (AP) — Flouting Cuba's "solidarity" with the Soviet Union, Fidel Castro early Tuesday called for a giant rally of the Cuban people Friday afternoon to answer the Declaration of San Jose.

The bearded prime minister reaffirmed his regime's ties with the Soviet Union as he lashed out at the Organization of American States and the United States during a three hour and 15 minute harangue.

Castro boasted to a meeting of teachers bound for new schools in the mountains of east Cuba that "we have had the honor and glory of being the one to initiate the rebellion of America against the Yankee empire."

He charged the United States used its proposed 500-million-dollar aid program for Latin America and its allocation of the same day.

The elder Griffing was president of Video Independent Theaters, Inc., which offered a $5,000 reward for locating the family.

PLANNING BD. FOR TURNPIKE SEEN LIKELY

HARRISBURG (AP)—A proposal to establish a special planning board inside the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission today appeared certain of approval.

Chairman Joseph J. Lawler said he wanted to review the proposal thoroughly but thought it was sound.

The proposal was advanced by Commissioner Roy E. Furman as a means of keeping the 410-mile superhighway in step with current needs.

Present Staff

"I don't propose hiring a lot of people to staff the board," Furman said today. "I think it can be run by persons who are already on the turnpike staff."

The former lieutenant governor told a commission meeting Tuesday that he would put his plan to a vote at the next meeting. In a statement, he said:

"Since joining the commission a little more than a year ago, I have observed the daily, weekly and monthly increase of serious and, at times, almost insurmountable situations that had to be immediately corrected. In most instances, the resolves were correct and efficient.

Not A Criticism

"Yet, with this background, I can foresee that we are fast approaching a period when our decisions and actions will be made in such haste that, too late, we realize that our judgment was in error."

Furman said his statement was not meant as a criticism of commission policy in the past.

"Rather," he said in an interview, "it is just what my statement indicated—a plan for creating a special group which could foresee problems before they become emergencies and prepare plans in advance for eliminating them if and when critical situations crop up."

He said the board would help the commission "avoid many pitfalls and errors... and at the same time make the turnpike a safer, more modern and more economical highway."

Furman's proposal was made after the commission unanimously adopted a resolution by Chairman Joseph J. Lawler calling for medial barriers along the entire length of the turnpike "as rapidly as can be orderly planned."

The agency approved a $1,322,-
